2. Dog-Gone Cute!

Pugs Have a Grand Old Howl-O-Ween

Pugs decked out in Halloween costumes took to the stage in Burbank, California to strut their stuff for the 12th annual Halloween Howl. "Pug-Vader" was the crowd favorite. All proceeds from the event went to the Little Angels Pug Rescue Organization. To check out more on this event and see a slideshow of the Howl, click on the link below.

3. Santa Paws Update!

Santa Paws is Coming to Town!

Ready or not, the holidays are here! Santa Paws' little helpers have been hard at work here in the workshop at OurDogHouse. Santa Paws requested a new breed be added to OurDogHouse, so his little elves quickly added the Pekingese to our line up. Also, we are now adding black tee shirts to a few of our sayings. More are being added daily! Our goal is to create fun and unique gifts for the entire family! From more traditional items like mugs and tee shirts with original designs to breed-specific postage stamps, there is something for everyone on your list. Don't forget our Custom Zone; we can help you create a one-of-a-kind gift for dog lover in your life.

4. MicroPup

MicroPup Pet Identification Copyright © OurDogHouse

If you are one of the millions of pet owners who have worry about your fur-baby getting lost, you have good reason. The fact is that one of every three pets will become lost. Without ID, 90% will never return home. Here is something you can think about to help the odds if you and your pet become disconnected. Schering-Plough Corporation's HomeAgain Pet identification and recovery service offers pet owners a permanent form of pet identification. This simple method implants a microchip with a unique identification code assigned to your pet under the skin between the shoulder blades. The microchip is about the size of a grain of rice. It can be instantly read at shelters and vets' offices. The cost is $68.50 and includes the microchip, implantation service, a collar tag, 24/7 recovery service and exclusive internet services. You can find vets that offer HomeAgain by plugging your zip code in on their web site we have provided their web address below this article. For more information, visit there web site or call 800-521-5767.
